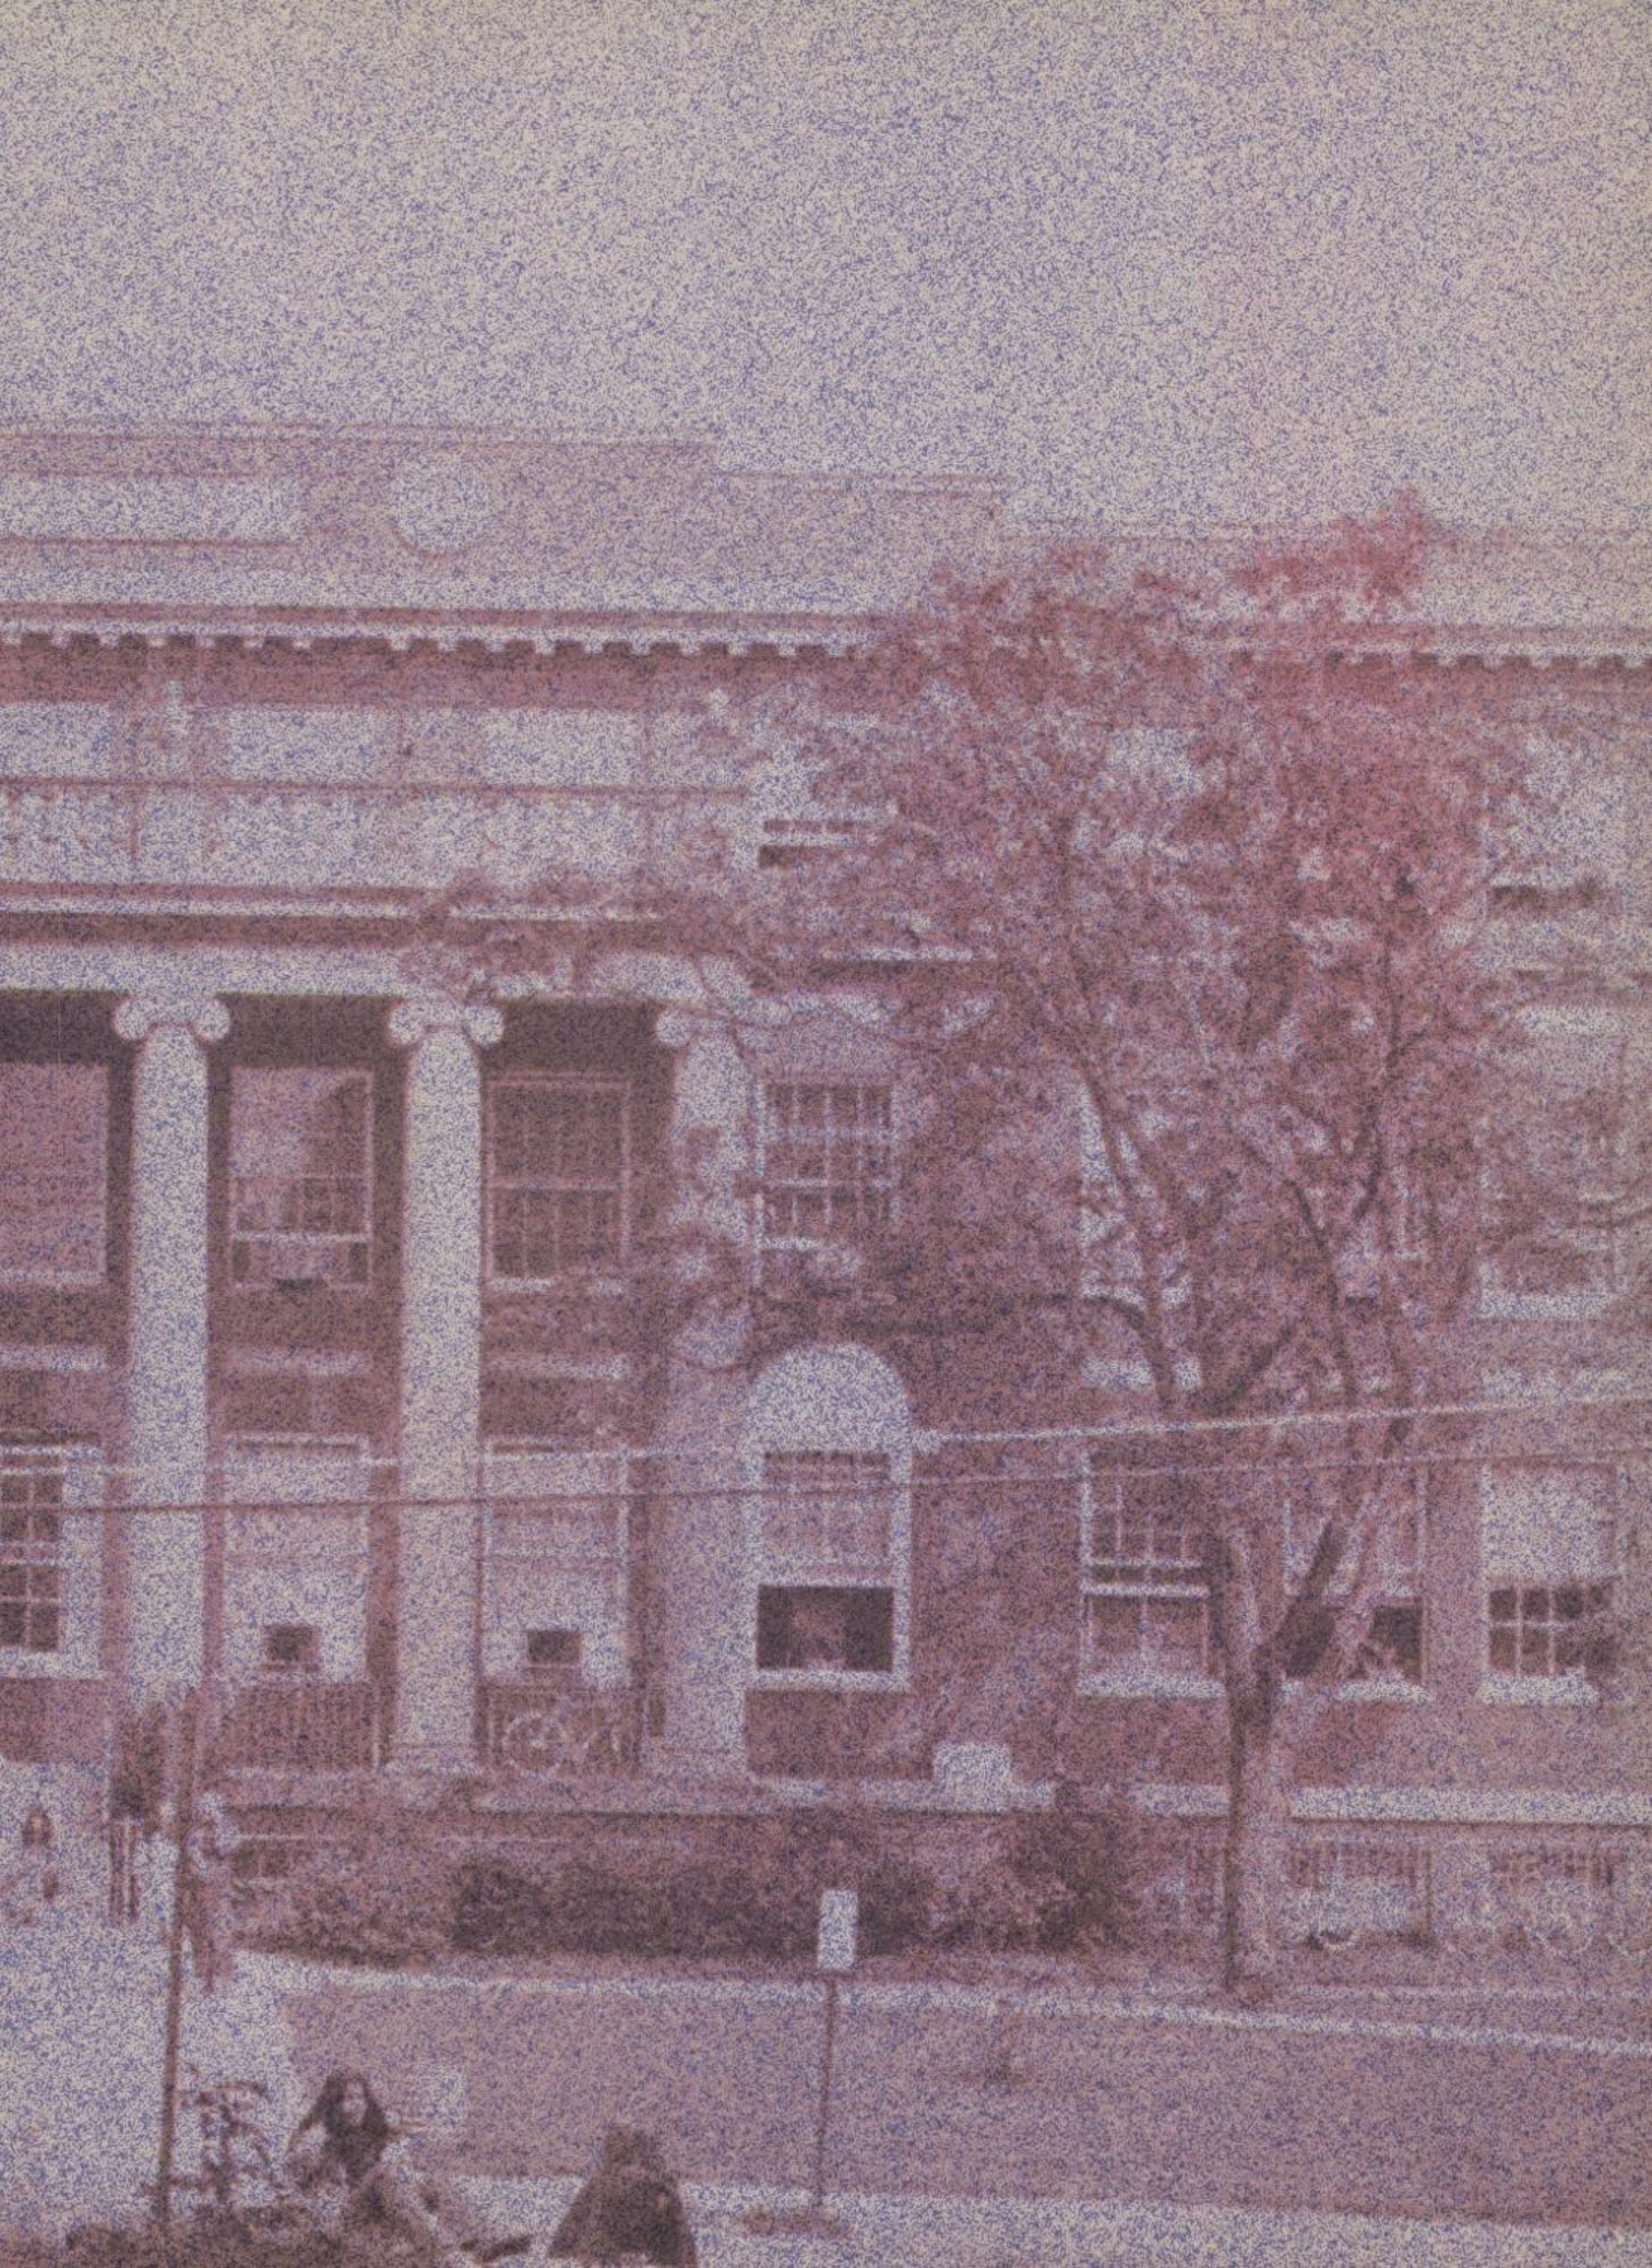
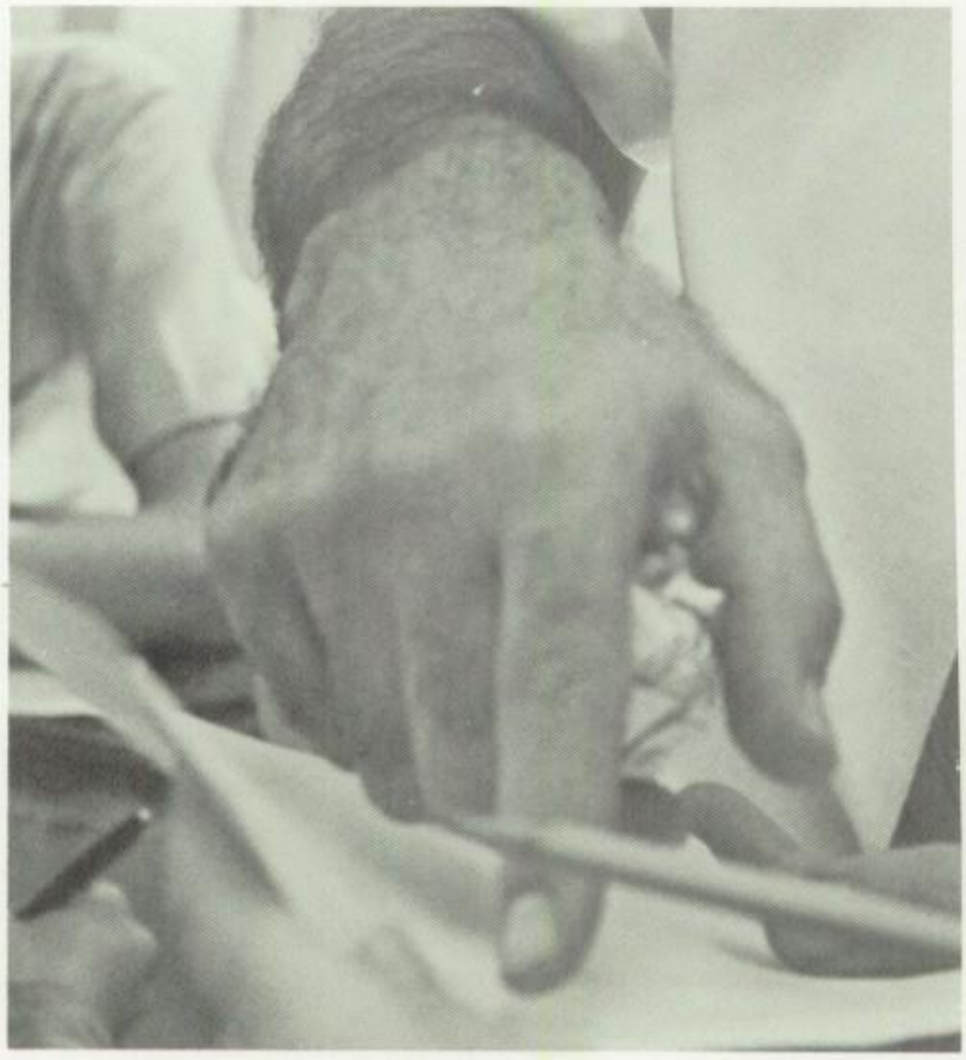
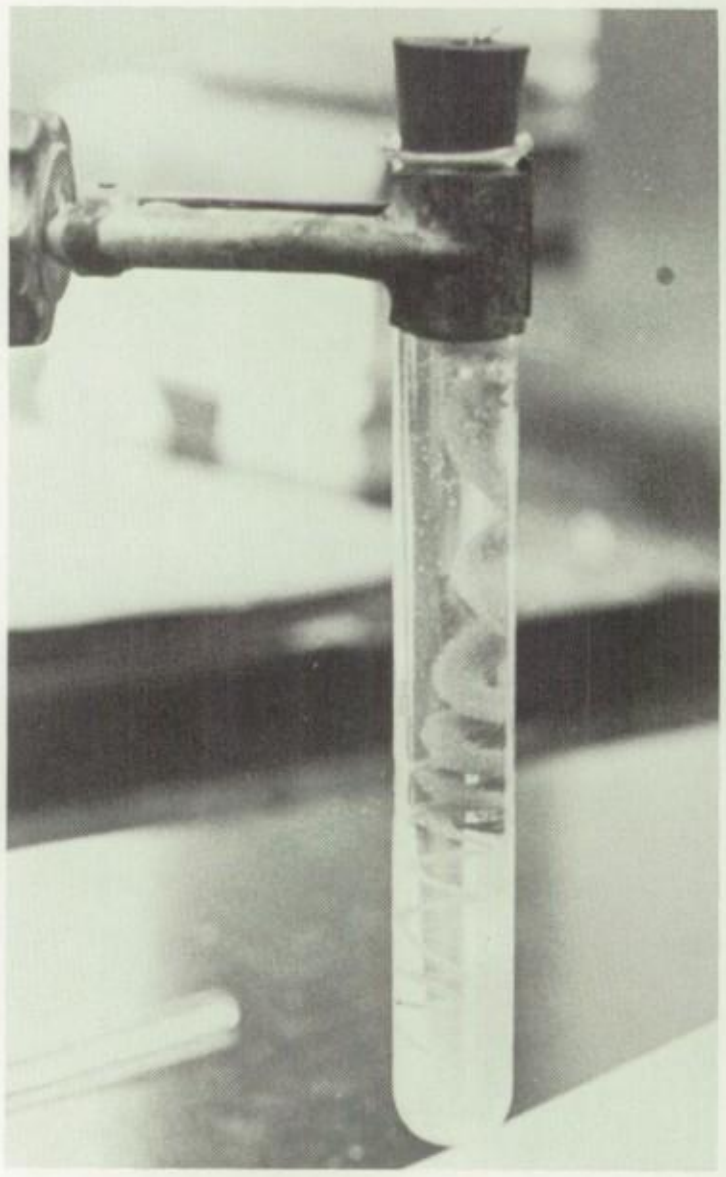
pds 72



Out from the depths of what was once real, and meaningful, and true;





comes a hand
to push us onward, with a place to move us to.

Where time has passed by yesterday, and moves on toward tomorrow;

Where light shines on our everything, its joy, its pain, its sorrow.

Can joy be real without a friend to give a little to?

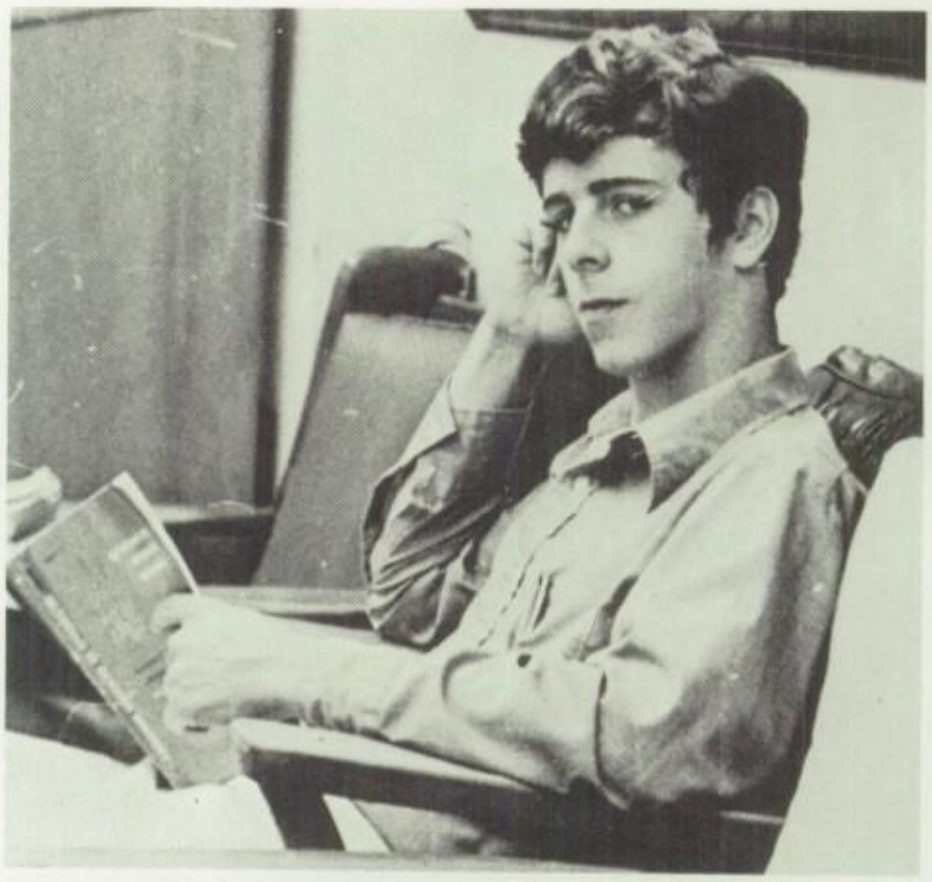
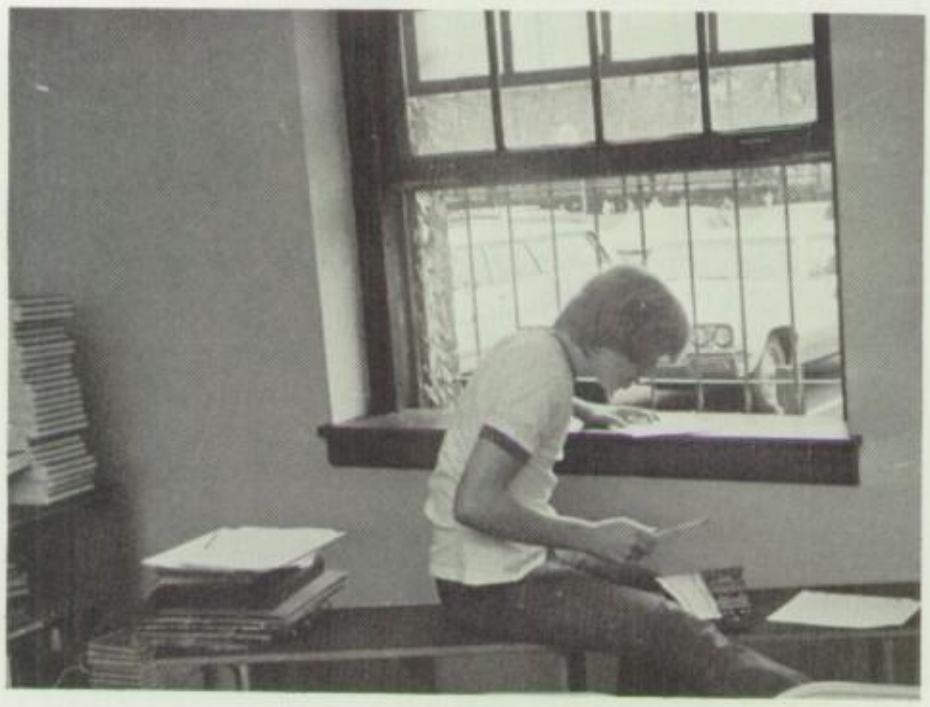
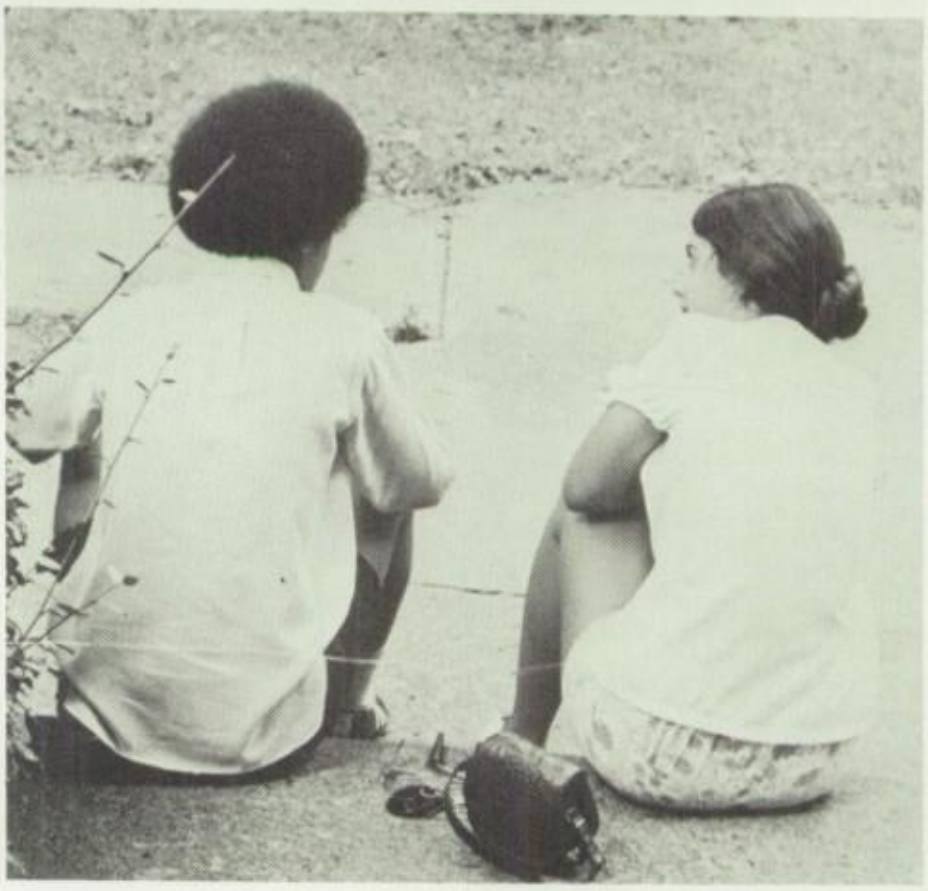
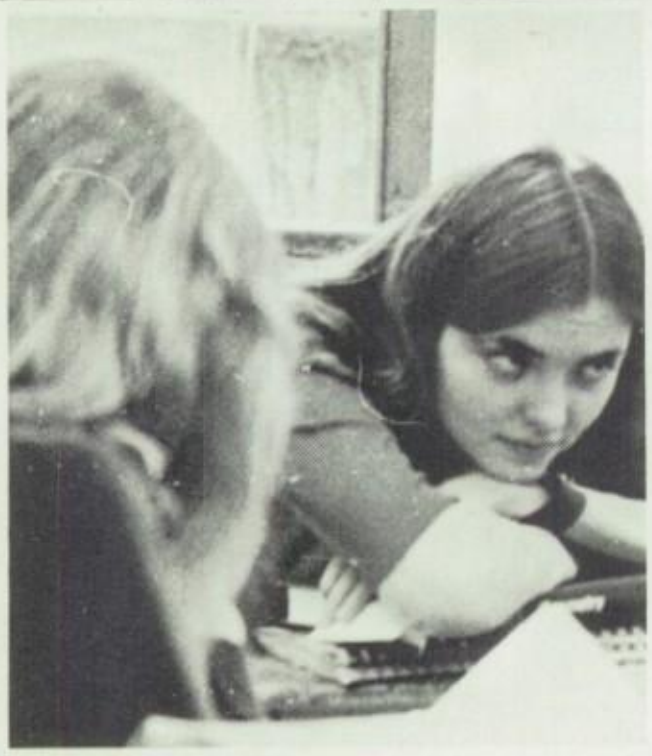
Is pain so bad when there's someone to help you see it through?



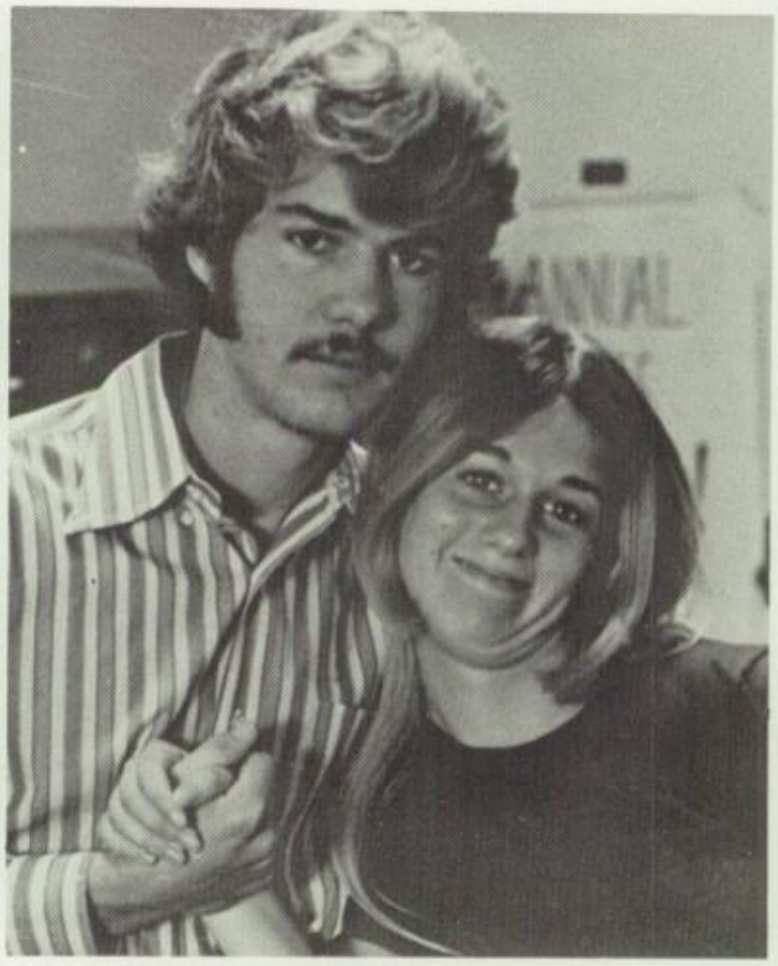


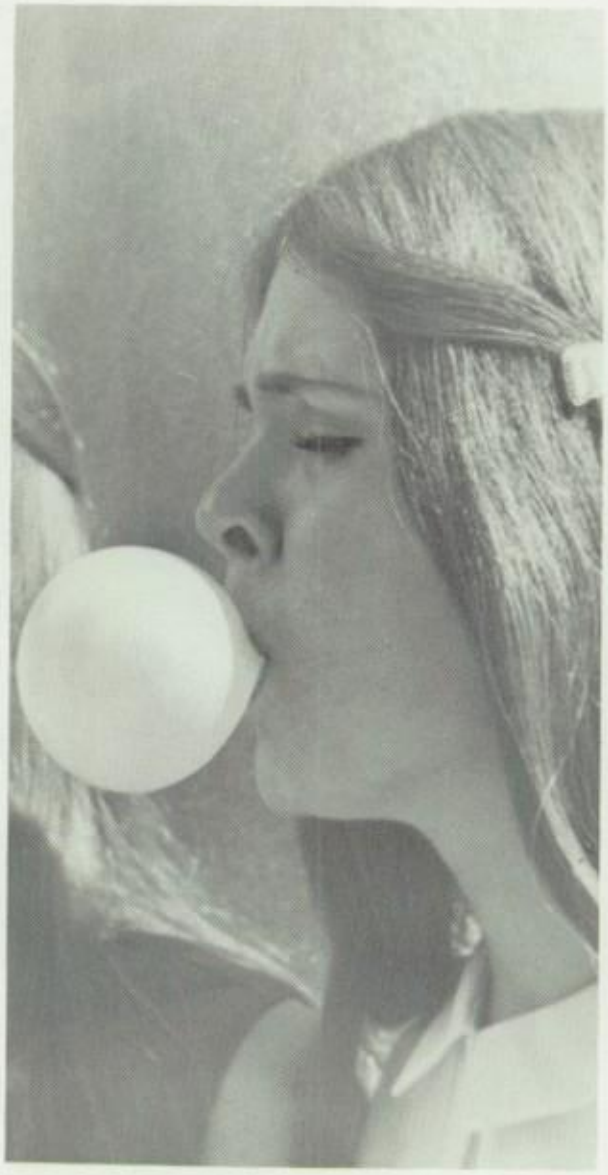




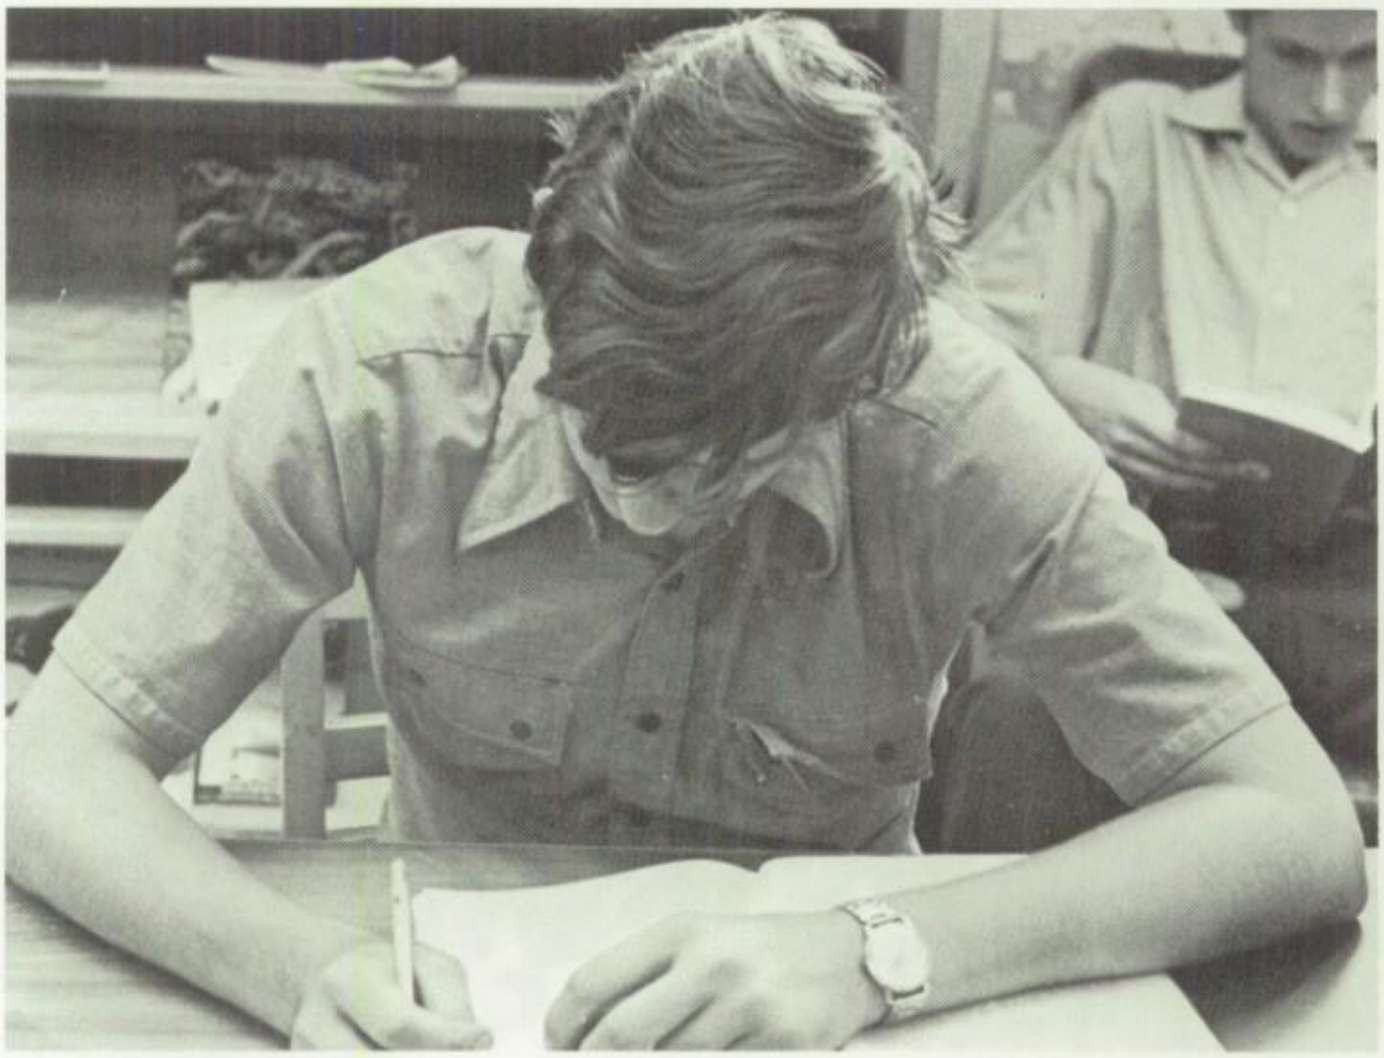
Will sorrow's burden beat on you till you can hardly breathe?

No, for man and God and love will all your load relieve.





Life is made of little things — small comings and small goings,



And for each thing
we take away, a part of us is growing.

And so we reach
far deep inside,

And soon we come to find . . .

That for each thing we take away

The 1972 Volunteer

we leave something behind

And the seasons, they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captive on the carousel of time.
We can't return, we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game.

gone now
Cartwheels turn to car wheels through

And they tell him, Take your time,
it won't be long now,
Till you drag your feet to slow the circles down.

So the years spin by

And now the boy is twenty.

Though his dreams have lost

Some grandeur coming true.

There'll be new dreams,

Maybe better dreams; and plenty

Before the last revolving year is through.

SENIOR CLASS '72

Last Will and Testament of Peabody Demonstration School Class of 1972.

I, Ed Allen, gladly leave Peabody to seek my fame and fortune.

I, Elizabeth Allen, leave Mr. Mo a copy of Little Red Riding Hood and a doll baby. To Susan I leave the remains of "The House" and my deck of cards. I leave my one track mind to Mr. Stitely. To Gentle Jill I leave all of my artistic ability. I leave the saying "Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose" to the 72-73 Peapod Kittens. To my babydoll I leave Hudbd and all my memories of my senior year, second semester.

I, Doug Andrews, bequeath my lack of vice to J. Farnsworth Wallaby.

I, David Baldwin, being of sound mind or sound body, leave; Brillo head to Red, to Egg my prowess on the basketball court, and to Jonni Falk: I leave. I leave Mr. Bradley in hopes that what our Physics class didn't teach him the next one will. I hereby leave the sarps of this school in order to withstand the sarps of the next: And finally I leave my baby dolls to me.

I, Ben Barton, leave Jonni Falk to Lee Spann to do with as he chooses during basketball practice, and my amorous tendencies to Billy Evan's who needs all the help he can get. To the teacher's I've had I leave some "peace of mind" and lastly I leave knowing I have learned a whole lot more about people than I ever dreamed possible.

I, Rosalyn Baxter, leave happily and on to better things with Jackie a gopher.

I, Randy Belz, being of spaced mind and unsound body, do hereby bequeath to Kenny Katzoff my hands, may he use them in peace, Little Fish, minnow, or eggs, my VW, and the ability to drive a four-speed, and my sister all the stashes in my room.

I, Mark Benner, leave to Lee Spann my hair; to Ronnie Steine, to save embarassment on his part, a book of assorted basketball plays and tiddly wink rhetoric; and to Mr. McMullen my sculpture, which will surely leave him ecstatic, and pleased to no end.

I, Yarrott Benz, leave some of the teachers to stew in their own apathy because it is very, very contagious. I'm not really bitter.

To any brother or sister desiring to know what it really is to be black in a white America, I, Phyllis Bernard, bequeath Peabody Demonstrtation School. Amen.

I, Fred Birmingham, leave my ability to take Physics to any clown who wants it. To Nasty, Nasty I wipe her records clean of her name. Leave the mistakes of the class of '72 to the class of '73. Finally I leave me to myself.

I, Beverly Bradley, leave my book "All You Wanted To Know About Passing In School Without Ever Attending Classes" to anyone who doesn't want to go to school.

I, Debbie Bratton, leave Ronnie Steine the promise that I'll be his first lady, to Susan and Gentle Jill I leave the hope that they will get new numbers for the old referees, to Mr. Moser I leave the hope that Hazelwood, and James will never show in Peabody's gym and to the rest of the Peabody baby dolls I leave my ability to get disgusted at ballgames. Oh yes, and Mr. Colozzi, a new bath robe and flipflops so I won't have to see him otherwise.

I, Harold Brittingham, do leave 16 pesos and one copy of Lick The Giggle Stick to the Peabody Manist Society.

I, Judith Caldwell, leave Chief Stone a garden of roses to distribute among his women visitors since times get lonely as he borders his rock garden. To Mr. Cool Hand Cal, I leave a paper on, "Everything You Wanted to Know About Basketball and Were Afraid to Ask".

I, Sharen Cone, leave my pom-pons to "Lizzie" Bowers, my parking space to Suzanne, a dollars worth of gas to Lawerence Lee, my loneliness without my "lover" to Billy Evans, my ability to work things out to Cindy Carney, DBS to Nancy, and after 12 fantastic years at PDS, I leave to go to Memphis.

I, Kent Cooper, leave to whoever needs it my ability to drive Mr. Stitely NUTS. I also leave him with the name Terrible Tom. I also leave Lee Span Doug's baggy pants.

I, Danny Davidson, leave my copy of Birds Of America to Pam Hardman; my poverty to JM; my 8x10 portrait of Joan Baez to Mr. Colozzi; and my fetish for Flannery O'Connoe to Mr. Offutt.

I, John Davis, leave one slightly used Physics book and four volumes on notes from Mr. Offutt's English class.

I, Mark Davis, leave nothing to anybody and to everybody I leave a truck load of Sunshine Prunes.

I, Steve Davis, leave the entire school my two little brothers, who I know you love. To Ty I leave a pair of horse blinders so that she can concentrate on mowing her grass and not looking at Mrs. Hoizy. I leave Lori 10 pounds of beans for her bean bag chair to make it more comfortable.

I, Kalpana Deshpande, leave to Lori Hoffman a copy of "All You Ever Wanted To Know About Sex" and to Mr. Offutt I leave my copy of "Pun-A-Bridged Dictionary".

I, Scott Dixon, regretfully leave Peabody.

I, Cindy Draper, leave my flexibility, physical fitness tests, and split ends to Louise Burchett, to Teri Doochin I leave my parking space at the Wesley Foundation, and I leave with so many pleasant memories of this past year.

I, Anne Eastland, do leave Jim Hite one quarter in hopes he'll find someone else to talk to in the halls next year; to Jeff Metzger one set of exhausted soprano vocal cords (not that he needs them); to Sherri Skinner I leave one disasterous Friday night we'll both never forget and finally I leave to Mrs. Bridges thanks for all the help, time and friendship that she has given to me.

I, Severine Engel, leave to all next years' French IV students my French grammer book with all the answers. To Louise Burchett, I leave 1,000,000 dates. To Faith Brooks, I leave soap and water in order for her to blow bubbles with. To Mr. Rogers, Mr. Smotherman and Dr. Pratt, I leave another bomb scare!

I, Beth Freeman, leave to my younger sister Babsy, common sense, and a green Subaru.

I, Joan C. Freudenthal, leave four years of painful adolescence behind me and take along four years of growing and sharing.

I, Ricky Goldstein leave Mr. Stitely an Overdue library book, and a case of mangled bones.

I, Mollie Gore, with much trepidation at leaving, hereby will: to Peabody with love; one bottle of instant laughing potion to be used when it takes itself too seriously. To Mr. Offutt one bottle to use for the same ailment, also one alarm clock to the affore mentioned longwinded English teacher and a peck of sarpy words to use if he runs out. To Eva Ansoff; my ability to laugh especially at one's ludicrous self. To Mr. Colozzi: A Kiss from Scarlett and a pair of roller skates. To everyone else: a bit of my delightful insanity to brighten up the world with and lastly I leave the halls barren of the music which once added to the dim of the days.

I, Robert T. Griffith, being of "sound" mind, and musical soul do hereby bequeath upon my leaving PDS, a set of patch cords to Blair Davies in hopes that he might plug his computer programs in right. I also leave Dr. Carroll the piano in the orchestra room in the knowledge that he can now write music in peace.

I, Lee Hall, leave to Joe Simmons my little black book, in hopes that he may use it well this time. I also leave Mr. Bradley all of my revolutionary literature and an autobiography of Lenny Bruce. I leave my height to the B-Team cheerleaders and my seat at the basketball games to the most masachistic junior.

I, Mary Jane Hayes, would like to thank everyone concerned. I leave to my friends all of our memories. To Kim Morris, I leave my elbow pad, to Ronnie Steine, I leave my gullibility. To Frances Hayes and Peet Crain, I leave my car keys. I leave the entire third floor to William White, my basketball ability goes to Carolyn Tate who said she wanted it. Good-bye PDS.

I, Robin Harvey, will two zippers for the mouths of Ann Vix and Ellen Cohen, who surely need them.

I, Tom Hill, leave Mr. Colozzi one copy of Gone With the Wind.

I, Libby Hirsh, will my Monday afternoon hook-up's to Kim Morris, my constant references of Walden to Betsy Werthan and my memories of PDS to Ronnie Steine: hoping that one day he will be able to make some sense of them. With this knowledge, I myself leave, smiling; fully assured that I have finished all that I set out to accomplish.

I, Suzy Creamcheese, being here and now temporarily insane, here leave my name and my porcelin -oo-s to Janet, my Peter Max tennis shoes to Amy, THE parking space to Carla, and to Mr. Offutt, a ruff tuff cupcake (with pink frosting).

I, Benita Karr, leave my broken Brownie camera to Rick Lorch, my white angel's suit to Frances Hayes, my inability to jump, to next year's girls' basketball center, to Mr. Stitely — another bored student, and to Mr. Moser — many thanks.

I, Peter Katz, leave my collection of dirty books to Tom Stitely.

I, Eddie King, do hereby leave to Mr. Rogers and Mr. Bradley 205A to do with as they please; to Blair Davies contents thereof (good luck); and to Dr. Carroll the chance to begin anew; and to Gale Johnson and Lynn Miller the memories of one hell of a year. May Mr. Colozzi Rest In Peace; Anybodies.

Whatever, I, Irwin Kuhn leave is left with a tear and a smile. A tear because the happy and sad, loneliness and love which Peabody has been will never be again but will never leave me. A smile because I, as I hope you, am constantly awakening to the new mornings.

I, Nikki Lasko, leave Anne Baldwin an abra cadavra, and a scale turned back five pounds; Robbie Jacobs "Marla", Liza Beazley a saddle and another ranger, and I finally leave, to be with Jay.

I, Beth Luton, leave to Mr. Mo the two ducks in front of the building; to "baby doll Tom" a pound of sausage; to Sue, my ability to write English papers and a sunflower, and to gentle Jill a pair of pink lace underwear!

I, Sharon Lyons, leave Myrna and Sherrie my voluptuous Playboy Bunny suit, in hopes that they will get as much attention as I did! Also for Myrna, a year's supply of phone calls, of two hours each, to Rich. To Mr. Colozzi I leave you to the bourgeoisie, hoping they know what to do with you, because I don't!

I, Jack May, part, leaving hope for the masses (the students).

I, Tami May, leave Peabody at long last, but will keep the memories forever. I leave Anne Bladwin a pair of nippy dippy tennis shoes to be worn one more year and then to be passed on to some deserving individual and to Mr. Lelievre I leave the memory of 3 fantastic physical science students, E, T, and S.

I, Helen Norris, leave to Anne Baldwin, lonely rides home after Student Council meetings, to Irwin, Jack, John Surface and Mr. Colozzi invitations to a cocktail party, to Mr. Offutt many thanks for caring, and to PDS, which is lucky to have him, I leave Bradley Seeman. We, Candy and Helen leave our diaries and a copy of True Confessions to Mr. Smotherman. Finally, I leave lots of love to everyone who has helped to make my years at PDS so great.

I, Patricia Pailet, leave to my boisterous brother Al, my meekness and quietness, which has enabled me to do anything and everything behind my teacher's back and never get caught.

I, Peggy Parker, in spite of Miss Edwards, am leaving. In my absence, I leave to Dena Boehms a well-timed case of larengitis, the strange memory of January 8th, four speeding tickets, Rip, the Broadway Barn, and Fox Brothers Inc. And to Joyce Vise, I leave Dena, hoping that they don't "Morris" and "Crockett" each other to death. I leave a bottle of pink champagne she'll never get to drink and the clouded memory of a birthday party to Diane Batson, to whom I also leave lots of love and thanks. And to Sally Handlin, I leave Keith and Smoot and a broken dream of one big happy farming family. I leave the love and joy of being Mark Davis's friend to all the Future Midgets of America. And last, I leave to Schog a very special QUEST that I hope she, unlike myself, will be able to conquer, or at least understand.

I, Philip Pennington, leave an atl-atl stick to Big Tom, with which to fend off any and all blood thirsty tubers, and finally I leave the A-V room in a strait jacket.
I, Martha Phillips, leave my ability to make it through the school year without getting any sleep to anyone who needs it and one warning to people thinking about taking physics from Mr. B. — Don't!!!
I, Mark Rippy, leave a year early.
I, Bill Salmon, leave to PDS everything I brought with me. Nothing. To Mr. Lelievre I leave a cherry from an ice cream sunday dipped in concentrated HC1. To Mr. Moser I leave Excederin headache No. - . To the students of PDS I leave a prayer.
I, Ann Rollins, leave Jeannie my skill and courage so she will be able to skip Latin II. To Brad I leave him his own pair of blue jeans. To my little brother Bill I leave him an extra 15 minutes so he won't be late for class, after a 2 mile hike from his car to the school. And last I leave this school in hopes never to return and never remember!!!
I, Sandy Schatten, being of spaced mind and gordish body leave my sarpy remains to Mr. Offutt. My ability to drive to whoever can total more cars than me. To Leslie I leave Fish. To Mr. Stitely I leave my head to totally confuse his psychology class. To John, Kirby and Kerry I leave me because I need something to ride.
I, Lucy Sellers, leave to Mr. X continued attraction when walking thru library doors, and to Babs Freeman, as much happiness as I have had in high school.
I, Jimmy Shmerling, being of sound mind and fit body do hereby bequeath the following of my vast fortunes; To Rick Lorch I leave an exposed roll of film to develop for next years first annual deadline. To my brother Mike, I leave Dr. Pratt's parking space. To all PDS newly licensed students, I leave my uncanny ability to chew gum and drive at the same time. And last, but not least, I leave Mr. Moser not one, not two, but three more Shmerling's (one for every class).
I, Ted Short, would like to thank every one who made this movie possible and contributed to its entirety. Friends, Lovers, Teachers, Administrators, Everybody — I love you, everybody I do. I leave nothing behind. Memories are found in the public domain.
I, Laura Silverman, of unusual mind and boyd leave the stale popcorn in the Health Room to Charlie the Cockroach; and to haunt "Big M", I leave the spirit of Dilbert, but I'm taking the real thing with me.
I, Draper Shreeve, leave Carla Mills free lessons on being succulent, Susan Shreve a collection of degenerate teachers and to Clay Bradley one big "Hea-Whow"!!
I, Joy Sims, leave C.L.S. with a large smile and one tear. I leave Nancy Hillman and Liza Beazley one cupcake and my personal joke book. To Jackie Welch I leave one gopher and two chumps. I leave my shakers and my ability to turn cart-wheels to Lori Hoffman, my great personality and my wig to Jill Lasko, and a birthday cake to Carolyn Tate, my fun and giggle to Mr. Bradley and a curse on Mr. Stitely.
I, John Stults, being of decrepit mind and body, leave to Peabody Dem and the students therein absolutely nothing.
I, Candy Sullivan, leave bay leaves, laundry, my pony jacket and a ridiculous picture of a cow with a gun in its ear to terrible Tom the russler; a piece of fudge pie and the annual to Louise Burchett; a red kite to fly on Mondays and cherry smiles to Jim Stack, a peaceful lunch, a table at O'Charleys and many confusing but happy episodes to Bradley Seeman, whom I shall never forget; I leave Mr. Rogers with memories of lost dogs, late nights and picnics; and I leave Mr. Smother-man, after 6 years together as best friends; and to Ronnie Steine I leave my frank opinion, my allienating out-look on life and my love, in hopes that he will now be able to understand them all. Last but not least, I leave Peabody — grateful for being here and thankful to those who have attempted to teach me; teachers and friends. May God bless you all.
I, John Surface, leave my pornographic postcards to the Peabody Onanists' Society, and my Dr. Pepper Credit Card to the C. A. Mills Chauffer Service.
I, Cheryl Sutherland, leave my spot on the bench next to Mr. Mo to Gay Levine with the best of luck. I also leave to my little brother Bubba, Dutch and Dutcher. I leave one last thing to Mr. Moser, that is being the greatest coach and a big thanks. Finally, I leave being a senior, the memories of the last four years at PDS.
I, Paula Underwood, leave my whoop whoop bird to Susie Schog and Mr. Offutt's blackboard, my insanity to Wendy Simon, Dixie to Randy and last but definately not least, a bottle of Cold Duck to Mr. McMullen.
I, Ray Waller, leave my entire collection of Cliff Notes to the class of '73, and I leave Ty Herrington a bottle of pain killing pills to use during the next basketball season.
I, Mike Ward, leave to the girls' basketball team a complete wardrobe so that they won't have to walk the halls in a state of nakedness. I leave Peabody knowing I could've done better if I'd tried, maybe. I also leave Peabody knowing that I have attained an intelligence far beyond that of mortal men. I leave Lee Spann my hard hat in hopes that he will keep up my fine tradition. I also leave Lee my membership to the Red Neck Club of Nashville. I leave Mr. Colozzi his American History Class. You can have it, John. Most of all, I think I'll just leave Peabody to whoever wants it because I've had too much fun and good times to keep it all for myself.
I, John Webb, leave my parking space to Billy Evans and I hereby give the road to Mr. Ralph and Mr. Bradley.
I, Susan Whitworth, leave with a joyous heart of finishing my high school career. Hallelujah!
I, Morelando Wilson, do leave running.
I, Jack Witherspoon, do hereby leave my speeding and wrecking ability to Mark Voorhees and Allen Caegile, so they can "get off" to a good trip without being rushed.
I, Manuel Zeitlin, leave Ronnie Steine. I also leave eggs-legs and Shmerling anything he can get.
To all the Junior girls, I, Rochelle Zelenka, leave the ability of the Senior girls to gossip about everybody else's business, and the hope that you don't hurt anyone while doing so, as the seniors did. To all the girls who gave me hell this year about my future as Mrs. Jerry Levine, I leave you to your own hell — that of being green with envy.

and for each thing we take away we leave something behind . . .
